

Anne Armstrong Cusack Biography

Anne Armstrong Cusack is Director of the Customer Assistance Division for the Michigan Public Service Administration. She has a passion for public policy, which she has filled by serving the public in a variety of positions including as the Executive Director of the Michigan Agency for Energy, Associate Director of the Governor's Office of Urban Initiatives, the Governor's West and Southwest Michigan liaison, Administrator for Special Projects for the Department of Community Health and Policy Advisor for Governor John Engler.

Anne previously chaired the Michigan Commission on Community Action and Economic Opportunity and facilitated strategic planning for Michigan Hospitals at the Voluntary Hospitals of America. She has served on a variety of boards including the Disability Advocates of West Michigan, the Michigan Domestic Violence Prevention and Treatment Board, the Michigan Board of Medicine, and as an elected Commissioner at the Grand Rapids Public Library Board where she served as president.

Anne holds a bachelor's degree from Yale University and a Master of Health Services Administration/Public Health from the University of Michigan. In her spare time, she walks, reads and buries herself in needlepoint and knitting.