

Biography of Kwafo Adarkwa

Mr. Adarkwa has over 16 years of Utility Regulatory Experience. Currently, he works as a Manager of Regulatory Strategy for ITC Holdings Corporation. In this role he formulates and helps shape the regulatory strategic initiatives for the company's Michigan Operating Companies (ITC Transmission and METC). Prior to his work at ITC, he was a Public Utilities Engineer for the Michigan Public Service Commission. Mr. Adarkwa is a multiple time graduate of Michigan State University holding both a BS in Electrical Engineering ('03) and an MBA in Integrative Management ('13).

He serves on the East Lansing Educational Foundation Board of Directors having served as its President from 2018 until June of 2020. Mr. Adarkwa also is a member of the American Association of Blacks in Energy (AABE). In November 2020, Mr. Adarkwa was elected to the AABE Michigan Chapter Board of Directors. Mr. Adarkwa is also the Chairman of the Michigan Energy Providers Conference Planning Committee. In November 2020, Mr. Adarkwa was nominated to be a Commissioner on the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission of Mid-Michigan. He also has served on the Hawk Nest Homeowners Association Board of Directors and has been a mentor in the Big Brothers and Big Sisters Program in the Capital Region. Mr. Adarkwa also coaches youth basketball in the Capital Region.

Mr. Adarkwa resides in East Lansing, MI with his wife, two children and one golden doodle dog.