

AUBREY JOHNSON
VICE PRESIDENT – SYSTEM
PLANNING & COMPETITIVE
TRANSMISSION

MID-CONTINENT
INDEPENDENT SYSTEM
OPERATOR
(MISO) ENERGY
2985 Ames Crossing Rd.
Eagan, MN 55121

EDUCATION
TUSKEGEE UNIVERSITY -
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE
MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

VICE PRESIDENT, SYSTEM PLANNING & COMPETITIVE TRANSMISSION

Aubrey oversees all aspects of transmission planning and resource adequacy to meet MISO's future system needs. He is responsible for the planning process that yields the annual MISO Transmission Expansion Plan, including reliability and expansion planning, transmission cost allocation, resource utilization, interregional planning, and the competitive transmission developer selection and monitoring process.

BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Aubrey's background spans more than 25 years in the energy industry.

Public Service Company of New Mexico

- Vice President New Mexico Operations

GE Energy Services

- America's Business Leader, OnSite Repairs
- Lean Leader, Steam/Generator Repair Network
- Service Manager; Georgia Power Co., The Tennessee Valley Authority
- Field Engineer

Southern Company

- Plant Manager, Wansley Combined Cycle
- Portfolio & Asset Manager, Southern Power Co.
- Plant Manager, McIntosh Combined Cycle
- Maintenance, Planning & Engineering Manager, Georgia Power Co. Plant Yates.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

- Habitat for Humanity
- Feed my Starving Children Volunteer
- 2nd Harvest Heartland Volunteer
- Albuquerque Public Schools Foundation, Board of Directors
- Leadership New Mexico 2014
- Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.
- Raymond W. Cannon Foundation