

Andy Coulouris

Director, Federal Affairs
DTE Energy

Andy Coulouris is director of Federal Affairs at DTE Energy. Coulouris is responsible for leading the company's policy and advocacy efforts in Washington, D.C. A Michigan native, Coulouris most recently led global government affairs for Dow Corning Corporation where he was responsible for directing the development, integration and execution of global and regional government affairs strategies.

Coulouris received bachelors and law degrees from the University of Michigan and served as Councilman for the City of Saginaw and was twice elected to the Michigan legislature before joining Dow Corning. Coulouris has leadership experience on chemical regulatory, trade, tax and energy issues.

DTE Energy (NYSE:DTE) is a Detroit-based diversified energy company involved in the development and management of energy-related businesses and services nationwide. DTE Energy's operating units include an electric utility serving 2.2 million customers in Southeastern Michigan and a natural gas utility serving 1.3 million customers in Michigan. The DTE Energy portfolio also includes non-utility energy businesses focused on power and industrial projects, renewable resources, natural gas pipelines, gathering and storage, and energy marketing and trading. As one of Michigan's leading corporate citizens, DTE Energy is a force for growth and prosperity in the 450 Michigan communities it serves in a variety of ways, including philanthropy, volunteerism and economic progress.