

Rose Dady is one of the most trusted and effective grassroots/political organizers in Detroit and southeast Michigan. She is currently serving in an appointment by the Biden Harris Administration to the Department of Energy as the Midwest Specialist for Intergovernmental Affairs.

Known for her community knowledge and project management expertise, Rose has served as outreach and policy advisor to the city of Detroit, under multiple mayors, labor unions, as Chief of Staff with the Michigan State House of Representatives and as District Director for Michigan Congresswoman Brenda Lawrence.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism from the San Francisco State University and is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated.